

Omar Davis - 37

“There's never a dull moment while serving as a delivery driver because each day is different. Although I'm behind the wheel for long periods of time, I get to bring people what they need and when they need it. It's really rewarding to be that go-to person for someone when you know the person behind the request is appreciative. The thank you messages, snacks near the front door, friendly pets, and warm smiles are the right pat on the back that keeps me going each day.”
